1. Attached for your information (and amusement, we trust) are two copies of a memorandum prepared by [REDACTED] following his conversations on 5 August 1964 with [REDACTED]. Although, as you will note, [REDACTED] signed the release (a copy of which is attached) he was obviously and sarcastically not at all satisfied with the amount given him. On the other hand it is also obvious that we gravely misjudged the amount [REDACTED] was demanding, but still believe that under the circumstances his claim was not a valid one. We hope that time will help erase any bitterness [REDACTED] may have regarding the matter, particularly since he will doubtless get in touch with [REDACTED] upon his arrival in [REDACTED] next Fall. (Or, as [REDACTED] suggested, [REDACTED] will probably want to get in touch with him to make introductions to high personalities in the Government. As a matter of fact he may not be too far wrong, since, if [REDACTED] agrees it may be a good idea to meet [REDACTED] By November, however, the scene may have changed so we'll face that one when we come to it.)

2. [REDACTED] will also be interested in learning that [REDACTED] is apparently not in the dire financial straits we had assumed. His apartment, according to [REDACTED], is at the top of an apartment building in Salt Lake and overlooks the entire city. There was no indication that Subject was poverty stricken and, as mentioned in the attached memorandum, he stands a good chance of recuperating his frozen Bulgarian assets.

3. We believe that for the moment at least this matter is closed. We are hoping there will be no future developments or repercussions.
